A wide-angle photograph of the Isle of Wight Festival stage at dusk. The stage is a large, arched structure with "ISLE OF WIGHT FESTIVAL" written across its top in a colorful, stylized font. Two large video screens on either side of the stage show a performer with long blonde hair singing into a microphone. The stage is lit with blue and white lights, and a large crowd of people is visible in the foreground, many holding up phones to capture the performance. The sky is a mix of deep blue and orange from the setting sun.

A wide-angle, high-angle shot of a grand, circular theater. The audience, seen from behind, fills the lower and middle tiers of the seating area. The stage is at the far end, framed by a series of arched alcoves, each containing a statue. The stage is lit with blue light. The ceiling is dark with numerous large, circular, gold-colored light fixtures. The text "Magic of the musicals" is overlaid in the center. "Magic" is in a large, white, serif font with a small circle above the 'i'. "of the" is in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. "musicals" is in a white, cursive font.
